Technical Data & Data Transfer

Please send us print data in the following format:

PDF: CMYK or grayscale mode, all fonts and images embedded, 300 dpi resolution

TIFF: CMYK or grayscale mode, 300 dpi resolution

EPS: all fonts converted into paths, embedded images

Colour profile: ISO Coated v2 (ECI)(CMYK) or Generic Gray Gamma 2.2 (grayscale)

das Orchester contains specialist articles on the topics of training of musicians and their everyday professional life, musicians' medicine, education in music, attraction of audiences, cultural politics, orchestra marketing and management. Each issue takes a look at the international orchestra scene and the work of radio choirs. Current musical life is reflected in reports on concerts, music-theatre premieres, music festivals, competitions, symposiums, and numerous reviews of new publications. The world's leading specialist magazine for professional orchestra musicians is aimed at professional and amateur musicians, orchestra and cultural managers, music students and members of the music business. Every month, the podcast Klangvoll features a guest from the cultural industry.

NEUE ZEITSCHRIFT FÜR MUSIK

Digitally available as app:

videos, audio examples, extracts,
links, and picture galleries

Founded by Robert Schumann in 1834, the specialist magazine for contemporary music also addresses, in a journalistically demanding manner, adjacent areas overlapping with popular music, jazz and sound art. The issues consist, in equal parts, of a topical section, numerous contributions to the column section and a service section. The latter section contains reports on festivals, music theatre performances and conferences, reviews of CDs and books, as well as news and dates of events, world premieres and radio programmes.

The leading magazine for contemporary music is read by aficionados of and concert-goers interested in New Music and contemporary music theatre, musicians, musicologists, and people in charge of concert programming.

The independent quarterly journal deals with topics on all aspects of the pipe organ: portraits and interviews, articles on instruments, organ-building, organ aesthetics and repertoire, as well as on the theory and practice of interpretation.

Organ informs its readers about current events around the organ, competitions and master classes, as well as about new books, scores, CDs and DVDs.

Also available for each issue is a CD recorded specially for organ. The journal is much appreciated by organ experts, professional organ players, and lovers of organ music.

The magazine üben & musizieren looks into all aspects of instrumental and vocal tuition, elementary music education and early music education, focussing on didactic issues which go beyond the individual instrument. Each issue deals with a topical issue and provides practical tips and information on the areas of law, insurance, occupational studies, marketing, (self-) management, as well as cultural and educational discussions.

The popular music education podcast „Voll motiviert“ has been added to the programme. The website www.uebenundmusizieren.de/research also provides access to the e-journal üben&musizieren.research – Zeitschrift für Forschung in music education.

The specialist magazine üben & musizieren is much appreciated by instrumental and vocal teachers, music school teachers, university lecturers, and music students.

Musik, Spiel und Tanz

mit Kindern von 0 bis 6

10 years of Musik, Spiel und Tanz

with CD

The quarterly magazine provides practical material for music schools, daycare centres and non-institutional groups. In addition, it contains specialist articles and background reports, up-to-date information, tips and events. Each issue comes with a CD containing songs, audio examples and PDFs, a set of court cards for immediate use, and a letter to the parents as a master copy to be printed and passed on.

The comprehensive material provides inspiration for teachers for elementary music education at music schools and teachers not teaching at schools (i.e. teachers of parent-child classes or teachers for early music education), daycare centre and kindergarten teachers, as well as persons who are being trained for one of the aforementioned professions, to shape their daily interactions with the little ones.

The quarterly magazine provides suggestions for modern and suitable teaching methods with the latest hits, handicraft ideas, musicals and classical pieces for children, as well as group and activity games. The issues are oriented towards special topics and take seasonal festivals into account. The articles come with scores, arrangements and master copies. The suggestions are practical and leave enough room for personal initiative.

The accompanying CD-ROMs correspond exactly to the contents of the respective issues, contain audio examples, videos and PDFs, and are suitable for playing the musical pieces to and rehearsing them with the children.

Here, specialist teachers, non-specialist teachers and/or all those who like to teach music will find what they need to prepare their music lessons.

Four times a year, the magazine provides varied worksheets for the fields of classical, rock and pop music as well as New Music. The latest hits and arrangements for music-making in class meet the interests of the pupils. Major music-educational topics are thoroughly discussed and carefully considered.

The corresponding media package (CD/CD-ROM) contains all necessary audio examples and playbacks as well as videos, worksheets and answer keys.

Teachers, music teachers and school musicians, trainee teachers at special, secondary and comprehensive schools, grammar schools, universities and conservatoires use the practical and action-oriented suggestions and the comprehensive material to prepare their lessons.

TONKÜNSTLER KALENDER

The pocket calendar is published in association with Deutscher Tonkünstler-Verband e.V., a standard work of the music scene.

Containing composer anniversaries with a two-year preview, school holidays, music competitions, essential addresses, information on GEMA as well as on social insurance and taxes for freelance artists and teachers, it provides indispensable information.

For 70 years, the practical calendar including week at a glance and schedule by hour has been the preferred choice of music teachers, free-lance instrumental teachers, performing musicians, church musicians, music students, and music aficionados as a time planner.

The screenshot shows a job advertisement on the music-job.com website. The header includes navigation links (Home, Stellen suchen, Stellen bieten, Kontakt) and the site name MUSIC-JOB.COM. The main content area features a large image of an orchestra. Below the image, the job title "CONCERTMASTER (PRINCIPAL I VIOLIN)" is displayed, along with the employer's logo (Taiwan Philharmonic) and the text "erstellt vor 2 Monaten". The advertisement includes a timeline: "Online seit: September 7, 2023" and "Bewerbungsschluss: Oktober 29, 2023". There are buttons for "Merkmale" and "Email Job", and social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, and YouTube. The "Stellenbeschreibung" section states: "Open job. The concertmaster is a role between the conductor and the chief of each part, representing the entire orchestra." The "Application:" section lists the required documents: 1. Application Form (downloadable at <http://mpac.nso.org.tw/>), 2. Copy of educational qualifications, 3. A Letter of Recommendation by a full-time musician from professional orchestras in the last two years, and 4. Copy of Passport. The "Audition Date:" section specifies: "Concertmaster: 9:00 a.m., November 27, 2023. No video audition will be accepted. Applicant will receive all necessary audition information by email prior to November 10, 2023."

General Terms and Conditions for printed and digital advertisements of Schott Music GmbH & Co.KG (Stand: 08.09.2017)

I. Scope of Application

1. These General Terms and Conditions for Advertisements apply to all advertising contracts concluded between advertisers or other interested persons ('Advertiser') and SCHOTT MUSIC GmbH & Co KG.

2. The General Terms and Conditions for Advertisements apply exclusively to entrepreneurs, merchants, corporate bodies under public law and public separate estates for all advertisements. General Terms and Conditions of the Advertiser will not be recognized, unless the Publisher expressly accepts their validity. The General Terms and Conditions for Advertisements shall also apply if the Publisher executes the advertising order without contradiction despite knowing of terms and conditions of the Advertiser which are opposed to and differing from these General Terms and Conditions for Advertisements.

II. Advertising Order

1. The 'Advertising Order' within the meaning of these General Terms and Conditions for Advertisements is the contract concerning the publication of one or more advertisements or other advertising media (e.g. inserts) of an Advertiser in a printed publication of the Publisher for the purpose of disseminating and making available to the public of banners or other kinds of advertising on the Publisher's website.

2. Orders can be placed by phone, in writing or by e-mail. An advertising order as defined in sub-paragraph 1 is accepted only if the Publisher receives the order in writing or by e-mail or if the advertisement is disseminated and made available as per order. Oral confirmations or confirmations by phone are not legally binding.

3. In case an (advertising) agency places an order, the contract will be concluded with the advertising agency. Orders from agencies are only accepted for identifiable advertisers mentioned by name. The agency is obliged to keep to the prices of the Publisher in their information, contracts and statements. The commissions granted to the agency by the Publisher must not be passed on to the Advertiser, neither in whole nor in part. All current and future claims of the agency against their Advertisers shall be assigned by the agency to the Publisher. The Publisher accepts such assignments. The Publisher authorizes the agency to collect the assigned claim until they meet their contractual obligation to pay to the Publisher. The Publisher is principally entitled to disclose such assignment and collect the claim himself.

4. The Publisher reserves the right to reject advertising orders, even requests for publication of individual advertisements as part of the contract, because of their content, origin or technical form, according to the Publisher's objectively justified standard principles, if their content violates the law or official provisions or if their publication is unacceptable for the Publisher. The Advertiser will be informed about the rejection of an order immediately.

5. The Advertiser is responsible for the due delivery of the advertising texts and printing material. He is also responsible for the accuracy of the delivered correction proof. If the Advertiser does not object to the duly delivered correction proof within two days, the permission to print shall be deemed granted. Requests of the Advertiser with regard to positioning and format shall only be binding if expressly confirmed by the Publisher in writing.

6. In case of doubt, requests for publication of advertisements are to be made within one year after conclusion of the contract. If the right to request the publication of individual advertisements has been granted in the contract, the order will have to be executed within one year after publication of the first advertisement, provided that the first advertisement is requested and published within the aforementioned one-year period. If a contract has been concluded, the Advertiser is entitled to request the publication of further advertisements, even beyond the number of advertisements mentioned in the order, within the agreed period or the above-mentioned one-year period.

7. The Publisher's duty to keep the printing data ends three months after publication of the advertisement.

III. Warranty and Liability

1. The Advertiser warrants that the content of his/her advertisements does not violate any legal or other provisions, etc.

2. In the case of modifications or advertising orders placed by phone as well as in the case of illegibly written manuscripts, the Publisher will not assume liability for their accurate reproduction.

3. In the case of illegible, inaccurate or incomplete reproduction, in whole or in part, of an advertisement, the Advertiser is entitled to reduce the advertising rate or demand a substitute advertisement only if the purpose of the advertisement was considerably compromised by the defects. The purpose of the advertisement is only insignificantly compromised by incorrectly printed reference numbers. The Publisher is not liable for defects in printing which are attributable to the quality of the paper.

4. The Publisher will perform a visual check of the printing material. If defects are not instantly visible but become visible only during the printing process, the Advertiser cannot claim damages against the Publisher in the case of defective reproduction.

5. If the advertising order cannot be executed due to circumstances for which the Publisher is not responsible, the Advertiser has to refund to the Publisher the difference between the granted discount and the actual reduction of the advertising rate, notwithstanding any other claims for damages.

6. The Advertiser's claims for damages for impossibility or delay are restricted to the substitution of the predictable damage and to the advertising rate. This does not apply to intent and gross negligence of the Publisher, his legal representatives and agents. The Publisher's liability for damages due to the absence of guaranteed features shall remain unaffected. In business dealings, the Publisher is not liable for gross negligence of his agents; in all remaining cases, the extent of liability for gross negligence against merchants is restricted to the predictable damage up to the amount of the corresponding advertising rate.

IV. Rates and Payment

1. The rates indicated in the current list of advertising rates are valid. This also applies to price changes which become effective during the term of a standing order or upon the conclusion of a contract. The discounts indicated in the list of advertising rates are only granted for advertisements of the Advertiser published in the contractually agreed year.

2. Invoices of the Publisher are payable, without deduction of discount, within the legal term of payment, though 30 days after invoicing at the latest. Any objections to the matter and amount of the invoices have to be raised against the Publisher in writing within 10 days after invoicing.

3. The Publisher is entitled at any time to make the publication of further advertisements conditional on advance payments or on the settlement of due payments, regardless of the term of payment originally agreed upon.

V. Termination

Standing orders or contracts can be terminated by giving two months' notice prior to the publication of the next planned advertisement. Such notice must be given to the other contracting party in writing. If a standing order or contract is terminated prior to the expiration of the (minimum) term of the contract without good cause, any possibly granted discount will not apply with future effect.

VI. Place of Jurisdiction and Applicable Law

1. Place of performance is the Publisher's place of business.

2. In the case of legal actions in business dealings with merchants, corporate bodies under public law or public separate estates, the place of jurisdiction shall be the Publisher's place of business. In case claims of the Publisher are not asserted in an order for payment procedure, the place of jurisdiction is determined, in the case of non-merchants, by their place of residence. If the place of residence or habitual residence of the Advertiser, even for non-merchants, is unknown at the time of institution of legal proceedings, or if, after conclusion of the contract, the Advertiser has transferred his/her place of residence of habitual residence out of reach of the law, the Publisher's place of business shall be understood as place of jurisdiction.

3. German law shall exclusively apply to advertising orders.
